

PEGASOS SALIVA SYMPOSIUM

Turun yliopisto, Hammaslääketieteen laitos
Dentalia, Lemminkäisenkatu 2, Turku

November 25,

I Salivary glands and physiology of saliva secretion

8:30 Physiology of saliva secretion Prof. Gordon Proctor, London, UK

9:30 Coffee break & exhibition

10:00 Saliva and systemic diseases Prof. Jukka H Meurman, Helsinki

10:40 Saliva and pregnancy Docent Merja Laine, Turku

11:10 Saliva and taste - and some taste genetics Docent Mari Sandell, Turku

Lunch (12:00-13:00)

13:00 Sjögren's syndrome and salivary glands (a video lecture from Helsinki)
Prof. Yrjö Konttinen, Helsinki

14:00 Coffee break & exhibition

II Composition of saliva - what does saliva tells to us?

14:30 Functions of the components of saliva. Prof. Gordon Proctor, London, UK

15:30 Use of saliva in forensic chemistry. Docent Pirjo Lillsunde, THL

16:15 Diagnostic value of saliva in periodontal disease risk estimation
Ulvi K Gursoy, DDS, PhD, Turku

17:00 Discussions and light buffet

November 26

III Clinical aspects of understanding and treating dry mouth (Fri 8:30-11:30)

8:30 Prevention and treatment of hyposalivation.
Prof. Arjan Vissink, Groningen, the Netherlands

10:15 Coffee break & exhibition

10:45 Oral health care products for people suffering from salivary gland dysfunction.
Prof. Timo Närhi, Turku

11:30 End of symposium

Further information and registrations: Anna Haukioja, anna.haukioja@utu.fi