CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

We invite abstract submissions on the theme of 'Clinical Ethics Across the Lifespan' for a collaborative conference in 2010 between the Department of Nursing Science, University of Turku, Finland and the International Centre for Nursing Ethics, University of Surrey, UK. This conference places a special emphasis on clinical ethics across the lifespan. The scientific committee invites abstracts from those engaged in empirical research and philosophical work on all aspects of clinical ethics as related to nursing and healthcare. The conference will be comprised of plenary presentations and concurrent oral presentations and posters. We welcome and encourage both experienced and first time presenters.

The aims of the conference are to:

- strengthen the network of researchers, teachers, practitioners and students in the field of nursing and healthcare ethics
- develop an international dialogue in relation to clinical ethics across the lifespan
- provide a retrospective and the opportunity to reflect critically on nursing ethics as a developing discipline
- anticipate and prepare for ethical challenges in health and social care in a global context

A condition of submission is that if accepted one of the authors will present at the conference.

Closing date for submission of abstracts: 10th May 2010

<http://www.med.utu.fi/hoitotiede/en/icne2010/>

Abstracts are to be submitted to Professor Riitta Suhonen, University of Turku, Department of Nursing Science by e-mail: riisuh@utu.fi

Find the abstract submission template from www-page

Abstracts should include: Purpose, theoretical/conceptual framework, subjects, method, and results and conclusions, as applicable. The text may not exceed 300 words and should be single-spaced. The abstract should include: title of research; name(s) and credentials of author(s); current position; mailing address, email address and phone number of author who is to be notified regarding selection.

The decision of the Abstract Review Committee will be communicated to the applicants by 31st May 2010.
